

Conference Registration is now OPEN

SIGBI Belfast 2020 Virtual Conference

Friday 30 & Saturday 31 October 2020. Start 13.30 Finish 17.00 each day

We realise that some delegates may wish to view the conference together over the two-day period. However, it is important that everyone viewing registers for the conference, not least as costs have to be met but also in order that we know how many members have supported the event. This is important information for the future even though we sincerely hope that future conferences enable us to meet together.

Important Notice – Email Information

When completing the online registration form, please ensure the email shown on the screen is correct as this will be used as your login for the event.
