

Welcome and Membership News

Welcome to the first edition of our SI Llandudno & District newsletter.

Presidents Celia and Sandra opened May's meeting. In June, Sue Evans was warmly welcomed as a new member.

Meet some of the 2025 Presidents.

A Heritage Walk & Lunch and a Tropic Skincare evening were well received.

Events & Fundraising

The Wellbeing Evening at Clare's was a great success, raising £1,143.50. A big thank you to Rhian C and everyone who helped!

The club raised £87 from a tombola at the Regional Meeting.

Our Lend With Care loans continues, we have supported four women so far this year.

Regional & Social News

Members attended the 60th Charter Lunches of SI Anglesey and SI Rhyl – always a pleasure to connect and celebrate.

The Wellness Talk with Mel Gizzi on 26 June was well attended and informative.

Janet Murfin joined the Regional Trip to RHS Bridgewater on 28 June.

Friendship links remain strong, though some clubs are now less responsive.

Plans are underway to extend Zoom hosting access to assist Pat Kerfoot.

Programme Action & Community Impact

The Clothing Bank has now moved to Ffordd Las and is being reorganised.

A sewing machine left to the club by Yvonne Johns has been restored and will be offered to Chester Club for Tomorrow's Women Chester.

Members continued volunteering at Happy Valley and supported the campaign to keep the library in Mostyn Street.

Upcoming Highlight: Jamaican BBQ!

We're teaming up with Rhyl Club for a vibrant Jamaican BBQ on

Friday 1st August 3pm – 6pm

Holy Trinity Church, Llandudno

Tickets are £20 – don't miss out!

It's all in support of the new Maggie's Cancer Centre.

Expect sunny vibes, steel band music, and plenty of dancing—so bring your best moves, a picnic chair, and your own drinks

Looking Ahead

- 16 October – Anti-Slavery Conference (Bookings Now Open)
- Continued support for Ukraine via Gerrie Bailey
- Sanctuary Trust in Rhyl will receive clothes for their new homeless hub.

Best Wishes & Remembrances

Sending love to Gwen Owen, who has suffered significant sight loss.

We are deeply saddened to share the news that Val Morgan passed away on 6 July. Val was a cherished member, known for her warmth and commitment. She will be greatly missed. Our thoughts are with her family and friends.

We also remember former member Pat Edwards; a donation will be made to St David's Hospice in her memory.

Thank You!

Thank you to all members who contributed their time, energy, and kindness to make these two months so successful.

Here's to more inspiring events ahead!