Who are they?

- Their vision is that women and girls will achieve their individual and collective potential, realise aspirations and have an equal voice in creating strong, peaceful communities worldwide.
- Their mission is to transform the lives and status of women and girls through education, empowerment and enabling opportunities.
- They have already helped over 100,000 women and girls with their work.

Why is it important to raise awareness of gender equality?

Safety for Girls

Why is it important to be aware of this issue?

How can we COLLECTIVELY make change?

How can you get involved?

- The Global Orange the World Campaign is 16 days of activism to end gender based violence from the 25th of November to the 10th December.
 - Join Soroptimist International St Albans and District in Oranging the World and saying no to violence against women by adding a touch of orange to your uniform; a badge, ribbon or hairband for instance.
 - This is your opportunity to join hands with survivors, activists, decision-makers and people from every walk of life, to shine a light on the need for funding, essential services, prevention and data that shapes better-informed responses.

Ending violence against women is everyone's business.
